No. 01

January 07, 2007

*And that, knowing the time
that now it is high time to awake out of sleep: for now is our salvation nearer than we believed. The night is far spent,
the day is at hand: let us
therefore cast off the works of darkness,
and let us put on the
armour of light.*

Romans 13:11,12

THE YEAR IN REVIEW & THE YEAR IN PROSPECT

The end of an Old Year brings reflection, the beginning of a New Year, resolutions. Last Sunday, I preached a sermon called “Looking Backward, Looking Forward,” which asked us to think back on the past (what has been accomplished), and look forward to the future (the tasks yet ahead for us). This morning, Lord willing, I shall preach about the opportunities this New Year offers.

The following is some information relating to us as a congregation in the year just finished – a “review” of 2006:

BAPTISMS:

Maggie Hughes
Jean Hewlett
Jordan Maynard
Andrew Heaberlin
Tom Miller
Angie Reffitt
Hugh “Larry” Lyon

PLACING MEMBERSHIP:

Randy Rice
Phillip Degelia

RESTORATIONS:

Charlotte Davis

ATTENDANCE AVERAGES (Sunday morning only):

January:	201	July:	192
February:	184	August:	213
March:	206	September:	202
April:	212	October:	192
May:	199	November:	190
June:	205	December:	184

Now, the year 2007 is well upon us! What are your plans? What are your goals? Is there a lost person you know that you can try to teach the gospel this year? Do you have a Bible reading plan? What can you do for the Lord this year? What can you do to help this congregation? The “blank page” of life’s notebook, the New Year, is before us; it is up to us regarding with what we shall fill the pages.

Finally, last year we had to bid farewell to some members who left the earthly walk of this life. We don’t say “goodbye,” but rather, “Until we meet again.” To them is this article dedicated:

Hel en Newsom, Ellis Stewart, John Burton, Namon Samons, Nancy Haney

HAPPY NEW YEAR!

-John M. Brown
