

Dear fellow Christian,

Pierce My Heart is the brand new online Christian magazine just for teen girls! Our mission is to offer a magazine that encourages young women to be pure, while giving them a fun alternative to worldly teen magazines. We address issues in a way that we hope will bring God's inspired word into today's teen world. Pierce My Heart talks about how to stay focused on God while dealing with issues related to school, friends, and dating. Pierce My Heart is filled with devotionals and articles on modesty, physical and spiritual health, being a Christian in an ungodly world, the media, and much more. Included in this e-mail is an attachment that can be placed in a church bulletin, and a flyer that may be copied and distributed. Please help us to spread the word about Pierce My Heart by visiting our online magazine and by sharing this information with the teenage girls in your life!

Thank you for your support,

The Pierce My Heart staff
